MAN BITES DOG

Copenhagen, Denmark.- Believe it or not, but a man who lives in south Denmark bit his dog to get the dog to stop stealing chickens. The man bit the dog, an Alsatian, on the neck while it was holding a dead chicken in his mouth. The punishment worked - now the dog is terrified of chickens.

Sights Bear, Shoots Self

Oil City, Pa.- Patrolman Carl E. Smith, 24, en route home, spotted a bear near a private swimming pool. Stopping his car, Smith drew his revolver as he got out. He stumbled, discharging the pistol. The bullet pierced Smith's leg and he was taken to a hospital. The bear just ambled off into the hills.

Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers!

The semester ended Thursday, January 24. The students think they have done their best.

The Planning Committee of the Student Participation Association met Friday, January 25. The meeting consisted of a morning and an afternoon session. Before the first session began, a chapel program was given in the gymnasium for the guests. The purpose of the committee meeting was to plan the outline of the Program of the State SPA Conference which will be held in April. The planning meeting was presided over by Miss Ann Lowe, of Norfolk, Virginia. Present were the executive secretary, Mr. Harris, of Danville, Virginia; Mrs. E. C. Jordan, the assistant secretary, of Hampton, Virginia, and Mr. C. D. Paige, of the VIA.

The game with R. R. Moton ended Friday evening, January 25, with the score of 34 to 33 in Moton's favor. The high scorer of the varsity was James Gafford, with 16 points. Our Jayvees won the preliminary game by a score of 27 to 22.

Tuesday evening, January 29, we play Carter G. Woodson, High, of Buckingham. The girls team will play the preliminary game at 7:00 P. M., and the varsity game will be at 8:00 P. M.

We close with this thought for the week: "Let us have faith that right makes might; and in that faith, let us, to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it."

DEATHS

MRS. G. W. LEWIS

Mrs. Mary Waugh Lewis, 70, the widow of the Rev. George Washington Lewis, died early on the morning of January 17, at her home at Appomattox, after an illness of 15 days. Mrs. Lewis was born in Upshur County, West Virginian, Oct. 25, 1886, the daughter of the late James E. and Florence Byrd Waugh. She was a member of the Canaan Methodist Church, Canaan, W. Va. Mr. Lewis preceeded her to the grave in 1937. She had lived in Appomattox since 1905.

Surviving are: five sons, Isaac, Jacob, James A. and Joseph, of Appomattox, and George W., Jr., of Farmville; six daughters, Mrs. Arnold Guy, Sturgis, Ky.; Mrs. Willis McConnell, Agricola, Va.; Mrs. Robert, D. Foster, Concord, Va.; Mrs. Morris Hawkins, Lynchburg, Va.; Mrs. Ronald Paulette, and Miss Ruth Lewis, of Appomattox; five sisters, Mrs. Ivay Wilson, Shinnston, W. Va.; Mrs. C. C. Ancell, Buchanan, W. Va.; Mrs. Roy Flint, Canaan, W. Va.; Mrs. A. R. McKisic, Persinger, W. Va., and Mrs. Earl Talbott, Charleston, W. Va.; one brother, William J. Waugh, Canaan, W. Va., and by 19 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from Liberty Baptist Church January 19, at 2 P. M., conducted by Dr. C. A. Collins, Jr.; the Rev. F. J. Wingfield, and the Rev. Otis T. Flowers. Music was rendered by the church choir. Interement was in the family plot in Liberty Cemetery. Active pallbearers were: J. A. Bingham, R. B. Hudgins, Joe P. Paulette, Sam Brooks, Dave Plunkett and Lewis G. Mays.

By request, we publish the following, a favorite poem of Mrs. Lewis:

A Bunch of Golden Keys

A bunch of golden keys are mine,
To make each day with gladness shine;
Good morning, is the golden key,
That unlocks every door for me.

When evening comes, good night I say,
And close the door of each glad day;
When at the table "if you please"
I take from off my bunch of keys.

When friends give anything to me,
I use the little "Thank you" key;
"Excuse me," "Beg your pardon" too,
When by mistake some harm I do.

And, if unkindly harm I've given,
Forgive me, and I'll be forgiven,
On a golden ring these keys I'll bind
This is its motto "Be ye kind."

I'll often use each golden key,
And then a child polite I'll be;
Hearts like doors open with ease,
With very, very little keys.

And don't forget that they are these,
"I thank you sir," and "If you please."

Living Up To A Slogan

The teacher was giving a written examination in European geography. One question was:

"Why does the sun never set on the British flag?"

Robert wrote the answer:

"Because they take it in at night."

sweet (just look) smooth (ah, that velvety V8)
sassy (just drive it)

This is the car that's fresher and friskier from its own special look to the way it takes to the road.

Those words—sweet, smooth and sassy—seem to fit this new Chevy right down to its tubeless tires. In the first place, it looks the part. It has a crisp, alert appearance—its trim and functional as an arrow. You can tell that the styling isn't just going along for the ride.

But the real clincher is the sweet and solid way Chevy takes to the road. Horsepower options, you know, range up to 245*. Come take the wheel!
